

Light Sport Special Documents are included here as they are a new style of manual being developed by Quad City. Many of the components, (but not all (e.g. Rudder Stops)) are shared with standard Challengers.

We felt including the information was better than not as the information is well presented.